

IN ROSWELL, THE ARTS MATTER!

Join us for our annual Public Conversation on the Arts in celebration of National Arts and Humanities Month! Our esteemed panel will illuminate the What, Why and How of Public Art with special mention of the process and plans for Public Art for Roswell's new Fire Station #4.

FEATURED SPEAKERS:

LISA TUTTLE

Artist and Public Art Administrator, Fulton County Arts & Culture

GREGORY BURBIDGE

Senior Program Specialist at Atlanta Regional Commission

DICK GOODMAN

Public Art Commission and Suwanee City Council, Suwanee Georgia

MARIANNE WEINBERG-BENSON

Award winning multi-media Sculptor and Educator

AYOKUNLE ODELEYE

Award winning Sculptor, Educator, Consultant

LEARN:

- About the forms, evolution and future of Public Art
- Why Public Art impacts a community socially and economically
- How Public Art moves from conception to installation

WHEN: Thursday, October 1st, 2015

TIME: Registration starts at 6:00PM, Panel discussion at 7:00PM

WHERE: Roswell Collective, 39 Oak Street, Roswell, GA 30075

SPONSORS: Roswell Arts Commission, Roswell Collective & Roux on Canton.
Music provided by award winning Roswell High Orchestra.

RSVP:

Due to limited seating, your RSVP is appreciated.
Please email rochellemucha@att.net to RSVP.
The event is FREE and open to the public.

